5. EXEMPTION AND RESPONSIBILITY

Competitors participate in the race at their own risk. Sailing by its nature is an unpredictable sport and therefore involves risk. By participating in the event, each competitor and support team agrees that:

- a. They are aware of the inherent risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for exposing themselves and their equipment to such risk while taking part in the event;
- b. They are responsible for their safety, equipment and their other property while in the water or on land;
- c. They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their actions or omissions;
- d. The provision of a race committee team, safety boats, umpires and other officials and volunteers by the organization does not relieve competitors of their own responsibilities;
- e. The coverage of a safety boat for this task, particularly in extreme weather conditions, will be as viable as possible under the circumstances;

The Organizing Authority will accept no responsibility for damage to property, injury or death directly related to the series of races and its background, during or after the completion of the event.
